

From: "Comptroller of the Currency" <occ.treas.gov@execs.com>
Sent: Monday, September 29, 2008 11:22 PM
Subject: RE: IMPORTANT ALERT.

Attn: Potential Fund Beneficiary,

Responding to a telex instruction from the Federal Reserve Bank of America / White House External Debt Conversion Committee / Department of Treasury, requesting this office to inform you of your payment value of ($10,568,612.90 USD) with The Clearing House Payments Company awaiting your attention for the immediate release of the funds to you. By the power entrusted on the Comptroller of the Currency by the President of the United States of America, George W. Bush and Department of Justice, we hereby advise you to contact The Clearing House Payments Company immediately for the release of your credit value to your Bank account.

The US Comptroller of the Currency, irrevocably and unconditionally Guarantee the above payment to be effected to your Bank Account in the month of October 2008, Subjected and in accordance with the statutory provision for payment under Schedule C of 1997. To the full extent permitted by the White House External Debt Conversion Committee / Department of Treasury. The US Comptroller of the Currency shall not be liable for any consequences beyond control in the event that the Beneficiary refuses or delay to contact the The Clearing House Payments Company on the below information shown below.

Contact Person:

dnb.interclearinghouse@live.nl

The Clearing House Payments Company

100 Broad Street

New York, NY, 10004

E-mail: dnb.interclearinghouse@live.nl

This is of the immediate verification and completion of all bureaucratic accreditation of your Funds Release Code, any liability which the US Comptroller of the Currency may incur is hereby limited. For the immediate release of your contract payment to your designated Bank Account. The US Comptroller of the Currency anticipates your urgent adherence to this important notice. The Comptroller of the Currency remains committed to the US Financial Principles.

Yours faithfully,

Nancy K. Jone

Executive Assistant to the Comptroller of the Currency, Administrator of National Banks Washington.

10/1/2008