Washington, D.C. — The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) has extended the deadlines for four OTS-regulated mortgage loan servicers to submit action plans to comply with enforcement actions related to critical weaknesses in processing home foreclosures. At the request of the U.S. Department of Justice, the OTS has extended the deadlines by 30 days.

The OTS announced the enforcement actions in a press release (<http://www.occ.gov/static/news-issuances/ots/press-releases/ots-pr-2011-08.pdf>) on April 13, 2011.
